I was able to figure out the hotel extension, thanks.

So, Jimmy and I have agreed that our relationship with Coastline will end October 7th which is less than two weeks beyond our current hotel extension, checking out Saturday the 25th.

We feel it's pretty silly for your contractors to rip up the apartment in order to patch it up just so we can pop back in there for a few days, and we're also worried that any patchwork construction will kick up more mold, dust, plaster and fiberglass onto our belongings.

So here's what I propose:

- Temporarily cease any construction in the apartment
- Coastline provides a moving POD (one of those small shipping containers)
- I can move all of our stuff into the POD in just a day or two next week
- Once we clear out our stuff, Coastline will be free to do a complete renovation instead of putting a bandaid on the problem
- Coastline extends our stay at the hotel until October 7th

I believe that's what's best for everyone. Now, I don't have a way to contact Jimmy directly, so I'm hoping you can run this up the ladder in order to expedite this for next week.

Good morning Chris,

I've forwarded your email to Jimmy for review.

Thanks so much!
